

PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA
OFFICE OF THE SHERIFF
NEIL ELKS, SHERIFF

To Jarvis United Methodist Church and all of its parishioners,

On behalf of the Pitt County Sheriff's Office, I would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude for the amazing books that you have so graciously donated to all employees of the Pitt County Sheriff's Office. The book, "Strength for Service, To God and Community" will surely provide inspiration and guidance to all who read. The title alone says so much, as our responsibilities require us to demonstrate "Strength for Service" every hour of every day. This wonderful book is just another incredible example of your support, generosity, and love toward local law enforcement agencies, as we protect and protect and serve the wonderful community in which we all live and love.

I want to thank you for the countless hours of unwavering support for the Pitt County Sheriff's Office, the other law enforcement agencies throughout Pitt County, as well as the inspiration you provide us all through the compassion and dedication you show to the people we serve. You always treat everyone with respect and kindness, no matter the situation. We all know how stressful it can be for the people who find themselves in need of the services we provide, and your words and actions go a long way toward helping them maintain their dignity and strength. Your outstanding commitment to our community and all of your work should not and does not go unnoticed.

There are no words that can describe the difference you, as a congregation, and as individuals, make in so many people's lives. You have been there for our agency time and time again, year after year with faithful support. The kindnesses, compassion, love, and help you provide is so very much appreciated. The extra miles you go to during the holidays are above and beyond anything we have experienced. Your annual Thanksgiving Lunch is looked forward to and talked about all year long by our employees.

I would like to specifically mention and thank two very special parishioners, Mr. James Enos-Edu and his beautiful wife, Janie. They are amazing stewards of the church, their faith, and our community. They are always so very kind and always keep us in mind and updated with your community programs. We are so very thankful for them as well as all of your amazing church members.

You are all truly Saints of our Lord Jesus Christ. He knows our needs and worries and He has provided us with Community Lifeline Angels in you all. If every life you reach out to is as blessed as ours, you truly have made a difference in this world.

Sincerely,

Neil Elks, Sheriff
